A Quest for Justice - Mzukisi Ndara 2021-10-01
It's a proverbial battle of David versus Goliath. A senior government employee has been embroiled in a bitter battle against one of the country's largest financiers, Wesbank. His Story is mired in alleged fraud, corruption and misconduct. The Grahamstown High Court this week dismissed with costs an appeal by Wesbank, a division of FirstRand - for the third time - against earlier rulings made in favour of Mzukisi Ndara. In the pursuit for justice, Ndara has approached several high-ranking politicians, Parliament as the custodian of the country's laws, the Hawks and the courts. But 15 years into the battle, the matter has yet to be resolved. And some dockets containing vital evidence have gone missing. Ndara has now turned to the Director of Public Prosecutions as a last resort. - Long and Winding Road for Justice: Bulelwa Payi; Weekend Argus, March 19, 2019 Based on your statement, together with police evidential material and the circumstances of this matter, Wesbank and or its employees breached the contract in the form of misrepresentations and acted in violation of various statutes as alluded to in your reports. - National Director of Public Prosecutions (NDPP) Advocate Shamila Batohi; September 24, 2019 Your story needs to be told for business and government to understand they can't keep turning a blind eye to their people who believe the end justifies the means regarding profit making. - Professor Thuli Madonsela; June 4, 2020 A seventeen year journey of sheer guts and resilience... - Dr Charity Hove October 6, 2021 It is a baffling, bewildering and unsettling story best summarized by your insightful self-observation (Part One: page 31), 'my inner desire for truth'. You write with fluency and power, the first part of your account, embracing your earlier life, is amusing, wry, entertaining and in parts engrossing. The later parts make for more challenging reading, because of the anguish of the cumulating injustices, delays, lawyerly and institutional disingenuousness and evasions you suffered. Your account is truly a Dickensian tale of the law's delays and obscurities, of lawyers and journalists' evasions, with very occasional light points of courage, loyalty and competence. - Retired Constitutional Court Justice, Edwin Cameron, September 6, 202

Moon Manual - David M Harland 2016-04-15
There is renewed interest in the Moon in recent years, with the news that a Chinese lunar rover landed on the Moon in January 2014, and NASA announcing that it is looking for private partners to land a robot on the Moon's surface, as the first step in a programme to exploit the commercial opportunities offered by the Moon. Recent lunar expeditions by both orbiting spacecraft and 'landers' have uncovered far more detail about the Moon's surface and geology, including the trail of Neil Armstrong's first walk on the Moon in 1969. This manual explains in simple and straightforward terms, with a wealth of illustrations and photographs, what we have discovered about the Moon over the centuries, along with a general overview of the vehicles involved in the exploration.

The Tongue and Quill - Air Force 2019-10-11

The Tongue and Quill has been a valued Air Force resource for decades and many Airmen from our Total Force of uniformed and civilian members have contributed their talents to various editions over the years. This revision is built upon the foundation of governing directives and user's inputs from the unit level all the way up to Headquarters Air Force. A small team of Total Force Airmen from the Air University, the United States Air Force Academy, Headquarters Air Education and Training Command (AETC), the Air Force Reserve Command (AFRC), Air National Guard (ANG), and Headquarters Air Force compiled inputs from the field and rebuilt The Tongue and Quill to meet the needs of today's Airmen. The team put many hours into this effort over a span of almost two years to improve the content, relevance, and organization of material throughout this handbook. As the final files go to press it is the desire of The Tongue and Quill team to say thank you to every Airman who assisted in making this edition better; you have our sincere appreciation!
