Plant Oils as Fuels - Norbert Martini 2012-12-06

Among renewable energy resources, Biodiesel fuel made from rapeseed is of special importance in Europe. Economical, technological, ecological and toxicological arguments have been advanced implying that, at present, Biodiesel is at best just a "niche" product that can only compete with traditional fossil diesel fuel because of significant tax incentives. Given the present state of knowledge in these very different areas, the decisive question to be asked is whether the competitiveness, and thus marketability, of Biodiesel can be enhanced by biotechnological manipulations of the rape plant.

Superfail - Max Brunner 2017-11-14

Diary of a Wimpy Kid meets Big Hero Six when a group of young but defective superheroes attempt to save the day! Laser vision isn't so hot when you're cross-eyed, and supersonic flight's a real downer when motion sickness keeps you grounded. Twelve-year-old Marshall Preston is a Defective--a person with superhuman abilities that are restricted by some very human setbacks. While other kids are recruited to superhero teams, Marshall's stuck in seventh grade with a kid who can run at super speed but can't turn a corner, another with a radioactive peanut allergy that turns him into a swollen Hulk, and a telepath who reads everyone's thoughts out loud. Defectives like Marshall aren't exactly superhero material, but when he uncovers a plot to destroy one of the greatest superhero teams of all time, Marshall and his less-than-super friends set out to prove that just because you're defective doesn't mean you can't save the day. With full illustrations throughout and a funny, heartwarming story, Superfail is the perfect book for reluctant young readers and the superhero fan.

Creative Writing Bouquet - L.H.I. Creative Writers Group 2005

The authors of this Bouquet are people like you. Retired, living in the Lutheran Homes at Glynde, with freedom at last to pursue things they have always wanted to do. Intrigued by a flyer in their letterboxes offering a creative-writing group, the long-held desire to write overcame their hesitation. They came along, one Tuesday afternoon, to meet with Dorothy O'Neill, a Homes resident and the author of several books, to find out more. Every first and third Tuesday in the month, for a year, these seven women worked diligently with Dorothy, to discover and develop the skills they never knew they had. Using simple and homely topics, they drew on their experience, imagination and wisdom to create the varied pieces collected here. Through the group, these strangers found the satisfaction of creative work and the fun and fellowship of a shared endeavour. So here is a bouquet of their work - short stories, poems, spiritual reflections - to prove that creativity flowers in all of us if we will let it: age open, experience not required.

Heat Transfer from Cylinders Having Closely Spaced Fins - Arnold E. Biermann 1937

A Secondhand Lie - Pamela Crane 2018-04-01

Sometimes you know things you're not supposed to know. Things that you can never un-know. Things that will change the course of your life...and the fate of the ones you love. I found her in our living room, bleeding and close to death, but alive. Barely. Until morning stole her last breath. The media called her killer the "Triangle Terror" ... and then forgot about her. But I never forgot—my murdered sister, and an investigation that led to my own resurrection from the dead. Twenty-two years ago, on a cold February night, Landon Worthington lost his father for the last time. After an armed robbery gone wrong, evidence and witness testimony pointed a shaky finger at Dan Worthington—deadbeat dad and alcoholic husband. But before the dust could settle over the conviction, Landon's preteen sister, Alexis, is murdered in their home, plunging Landon's life into further despair. Two decades and a cold case later, Landon is dogged by guilt over their estranged relationship and decides to confront his incarcerated father about what really happened the night of the robbery. But the years of lies are hard to unravel. And the biggest question of all haunts him: How does everything tie into his sister's murder? And so begins Landon's journey to piece together the puzzle of secrets, lies, and truths that can free his father, avenge his sister, and perhaps save himself. A short story mystery perfect for fans of Robert Dugoni's Third Watch and Dean Koontz's The Neighbor. Read as a standalone or as the companion book to A Secondhand Life.
